HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Study the corresponding lesson, complete its exercise, reflect on what you notice, and consider how the idea applies to everyday life. These are learning prompts, not guarantees of specific outcomes.

01 The Power Of Self-Mastery

WEEKS 1-4 | BUILD THE FOUNDATIONS OF INNER CONTROL.

Become still, relax your body, observe your thinking and create a pause between what happens and how you respond.

WEEK 01

Physical Self-Control

Practise sitting quietly and patiently observing the urge to move. Build awareness of your body and your ability to pause.

WEEK 02

Thought Awareness

Notice when your attention wanders and practise gently returning it to the thought or exercise you have chosen.

WEEK 03

Deep Relaxation

Learn to release unnecessary physical tension and settle your mind before beginning focused work.

WEEK 04

Emotional Self-Management

Recognise emotional reactions and practise responding more consciously rather than automatically.

02 The Power Of Creation

Patience and Growth Thinking

Recognise that meaningful development often unfolds gradually and requires consistent practice.

Learn to stay with one chosen idea. Explore perspective, harmony and insight while practising sustained concentration without forcing your attention.

Your six-month practice commitment

At 30-60 minutes a day for 24 weeks, you would devote approximately 84-168 hours to practice. Choose a sustainable routine and adapt it to your circumstances.
